

*Snowflakes melt alone - but together they can be traffic stoppers!
Teamwork allows common people to attain uncommon results.
Some people want it to happen, some wish it to happen, others make it happen.
Volunteers aren't paid, not because they are worthless, but because they are priceless.
Anonymous*

Dear Volunteer,

Thank you for taking the first step towards making a significant impact on the girls we serve and the programs we offer at Girls Incorporated of New Hampshire. Volunteers are so important to the success of our programs and they greatly enhance the experiences of the young people we serve.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics of the U.S. reports that about 61.8 million people, or 26.4 percent of the population, volunteered through or for an organization at least once between September 2007 and September 2008. Volunteers can have a remarkable impact wherever they serve, especially on the non-profit sector.

Girls Inc. of New Hampshire places a high value on our volunteers and their service. We strive to make sure that your experience with us is as rewarding for you as it is beneficial for our staff, our girls and our agency. We will make every effort to match you with the programs and activities that most interest you and we will always welcome your ideas and suggestions.

Thank you for partnering with us as we work together to help girls achieve their personal best.

Sincerely,

Catherine Duffy Cullity

Catherine Duffy Cullity, CEO